SO Disapprovals in Covert Cases
During December 1953

1. According to the records of the Covert Record Section, a total of eleven letters of disapproval for covert use were forwarded out of the Security Office during December 1953. A list of the eleven case numbers is attached.

2. A breakdown of the eleven disapprovals indicates that eight were disapproved on the grounds of questionable loyalty, one due to poor morals, one based on poor ethics, and one for homosexuality.
